

Mostly Mundane Imagines Visual Story

Imagine...

You make a visual story about your mostly mundane imagines

Alex Horne is also there

Mostly Mundane Imagines are some silly pictures made by Colin.

Colin makes the pictures to make themselves and their friends laugh.

An imagine is a picture of someone famous with some writing about what you might like to do with them.

And mundane means really boring.

So Mostly Mundane Imagines are about doing really boring things with famous people.

Colin's imagines include pictures of Alex Horne, Tim Key, and Mark Watson.

Alex, Tim, and Mark are all comedians who you might have seen on TV shows like Taskmaster.

It's very silly because usually people don't get excited about the idea of doing really boring things.

But Colin thinks it's fun to imagine famous people doing boring things just like everyone else!
